

First State Bank of Red Wing's Improved Employee Efficiency With a New Phone System

First State Bank of Red Wing's Challenge

First State Bank is a proud "community" bank in the city of Red Wing. Because they are strong within the community, they believe in volunteering, joining service clubs and helping the local youth organizations. They aim to be a friendly and personalized experience for your banking needs.

"We wanted to be more efficient, add additional phones, and get better technology and IT Support. Our problems are solved completely. The products are amazing and we have had no issues thus far. We are very happy!"

- Mike Collins, President & Chairman of the Board

In order to give a great experience, they needed a well-functioning phone system to better serve their customers and make business operations effective. Their existing system was outdated, malfunctioning and the features were confusing and inefficient.

Why They Chose Nuvera

First State Bank of Red Wing was looking for better technology and IT support to come with a new phone system. They also needed additional lines for their growing staff. While they currently had their phone service through Nuvera, they were not using Nuvera products and equipment. Since they have had a great experience with Nuvera's phone service, they
